

A Either Saturday night or Sunday, to make sure. Either Saturday night or Sunday. When it came out, when the first publication of the affair.

Q When you read about the Hall-Mills murder did you discuss with any other person of your family, or outside of your family, your having seen Henry Stevens the night of the 14th?

A. Yes, my wife, and then I don't want to use the other broker's name, which will come later. I don't want to mention his name. My wife and neighbors and various people, naturally we talked it over. That was the night we were on the beach fishing with Stevens, never thinking for a minute they were going to hook him.

Q These conversations which you had were how soon after your having read it in the papers?

A. The next day.

Q You remember having seen anyone <sup>else</sup> out on the beach the night of the 14th?

A. I am quite sure I saw this fellow Applegate, just a little above the place he caught the blue fish. Quite a number of other neighbors,--just at this time I don't recall--a number of other men fishing. This Simpson wanted to know who they were. Well, I don't just recall who they were, but there were a number of them fishing there.

Q But you <sup>recall</sup> Henry Stevens there?

A. I do, because he fetched fish right close by me.
